

EGO 803 – False Hearted Girl – (www.egorecordings.com)

Called by: Ron Reardon – Zephyrhills, FL (rsrhun@aol.com)

(This is a remake of a square dance singing call by Dick Jones on Jay-Bar-K and recorded several times on other classic labels. It is recorded at 128bpm, and is FAST. We strongly suggest that you slow it down, and workshop the figure before trying to sing the song. It is a simple figure, but the style is not familiar to many dancers as our choreography has changed much over time.)

Note: Ron Reardon and (the late) Dick Caniff called together as "The Good Guys" throughout New England and beyond and this was their signature song. "The Good Guys" were two of the callers that inspired Paul Cote and Ted Lizotte to become square dance callers and form "The Duo!" in 1988. We have included an audio track of "The Good Guys" calling this song back in 1990.

Thank you, Ron, for the suggestion. Rest in peace Dick Caniff. Thank you both for the inspiration.
